UKCMA SAFER CROWD, SAFER VENUES CONFERENCE

For the second year running, K4 Group of Companies was honoured to be invited to the United Kingdom Crowd Management Association's Safer Crowd, Safer Venues Conference. As an active member of the UKCMA and a company committed to protecting the public at large-scale events, this conference continues to serve as a valuable platform where industry professionals come together to exchange insight, discuss emerging risks, and explore the evolving landscape of crowd safety and security. Our team, including CEO Arsalan Khan, COO Tami Blay, Tegan Adams, Nick Bartlett, and Foster Bossoh proudly represented K4 Security. Alongside the conference, our team also attended the 2026 AGM, an important gathering for the UK's leading professionals in crowd management, event security, and public safety. Key topics including Martyn's Law continued to drive meaningful discussions around the future of safer crowds and venues.

WEST LONDON CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE - FESTIVAL OF BUSINESS 2026

K4 Group of Companies was pleased to return as an exhibitor at the West London Chambers of Commerce Festival of Business 2026, held on 3rd March at the Holiday Inn, Brentford Lock. As a business rooted in operational excellence and professional standards, events of this nature provide a meaningful opportunity to connect with decision-makers, innovators, and regional leaders under one roof. Our team presented the full K4 service portfolio across K4 Security, K4 Medical Services, K4 Training Company, K4 CCTV Services, K4 Workforce Services, and K4 Global at Stands 16 and 17, engaging in constructive discussions and exploring partnerships that drive long-term impact.

EVENT PRODUCTION AWARDS 2026 - K4 NAMED AS FINALIST

Following a fantastic showing at the Event Production Show, K4 Group of Companies was honoured to attend the Event Production Awards 2026 as a finalist, held at the De Vere Grand Connaught Rooms. Being recognised in this arena stands as a testament to the dedication of our teams and the trust our clients place in our security, medical, and training services. We are incredibly proud to play our part in making large-scale events safe and seamless, and to be counted among the industry's most talented and innovative organisations. Congratulations to all finalists and thank you to the Event Production Awards for celebrating a year of excellence

CELEBRATING WOMEN IN PROTECTIVE SERVICES - IPSA

K4 Group of Companies was proud to sponsor Celebrating Women in Protective Services, organised by the International Professional Security Association (IPSA) in recognition of International Women's Day at 116 Pall Mall. The event brought together influential voices from across the security and protective services sector to celebrate the contributions, achievements, and progress of women in the industry. A particularly proud moment came as our COO, Tami Blay, took to the stage to share her perspective on the importance of representation, opportunity, and support for women working within security and protective services. Tami continues to champion inclusivity within the sector, advocating for stronger pathways, professional development, and an environment where women are encouraged to lead, grow, and succeed.

WEST LONDON CHAMBERS NETWORKING EVENT - PORSCHE AG SHOWROOM

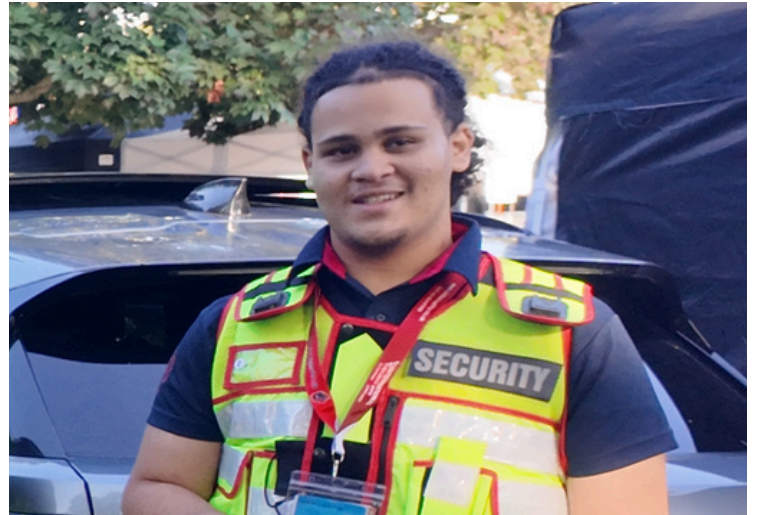

Our team had a fantastic evening of innovation and connection at the West London Chambers networking event, hosted at the Porsche AG showroom in Brentford. CEO Arsalan Khan, COO Tami Blay, and Foster Bossoh proudly represented K4 Security at an evening that brought together an exceptional group of business leaders and innovators. The event also presented a wonderful opportunity to connect with Brentford FC Community Sports Trust, and we look forward to exploring what we can achieve together.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

We are thrilled to announce that Yusef Selim has been named as our Employee of the Month of March!

He has consistently demonstrated the high level of vigilance and professionalism that defines the K4 Security standards, earning specific recognition for his exceptional customer service skills and his seamless coordination of site sign-ins.

What truly sets him apart is his proactive approach and willingness to step up as a Team Lead even when working outside of his standard role. His dedication to taking on these extra responsibilities ensures his colleagues are supported and our clients receive quality security service every single time. Please join us in congratulating Yusuf on this well-deserved achievement!
